The historical data so far collected on the Wick Homestead is even less valuable for ascertaining detailed alterations than that for the Guerin House. But it does give an indication of the character of the first inhabitants.

Henry Wick, under whose direction the house was constructed came from Suffolk County, New York. His father was sheriff in that County 1699-1700 and 1701-1702 and a magistrate until his death. One of Henry's older brothers, John, graduated from Yale in 1722 but evidently Henry had no comparable education. Although he was captain of a company of Morris County Cavalry during the Revolution, the will that he left in 1780 indicates a simple farmer with a rather cautions attitude.

Mary Cooper, wife of Henry Wick, probably had finer tastes than her husband. The Cooper family was famous in New England and the Coopers of Long Island were for many years prominent in politics. The Will that Mary left when she died in 1787 is excitabled and the inventory of her estate shows a surprising increase of property over that of Henry Wick.

to Wicks were living near Bridge Hampton in 1737 but probably came to Morristown about 1747 for the deed whereby Nathaniel Cooper and Henry Wick acquired the farm in Morris County refers to Wick as "of Suffolk County, L. I." whereas the deed by which Henry purchased Cooper's share in 1748 refers to him as "of Morristown, N. J." At that time they had four children, the oldest of whom was eleven years.

Under these circumstances, we may believe that Henry Wick would want to build a substantial home on the farm before his family moved in. It is therefore likely that the outside of the homestead was completed by 1750.

Interview With Mr. John Morrow, February 14, 1934 Regarding the Wick Homestead.

Mr. Morrow lived in the Wick House from 1903 to 1905 while he was caretaker for the estate of Luther Kountze. He is now about sixty five years old and cautioned us that his memory of the old homestead is not as vivid as he thought. Nevertheless he has made some interesting comments on changes in the House.

He believes that there was once a staircase going up from the closet, situated between the two front rooms.

The outbuildings that appeared oldest to him were the Ell Barn, the corn crib and the smoke house. They were described by him as being crumbling buildings when he occupied the house thirty years ago.

The walls of the small bedroom on the northeast corner of the first floor was boarded up by Mr. Morrow to facilitate papering. This was done early in this century. Flooring and papering were done to several rooms but he does not recall which ones.

Road leading through property from Jockey Hollow Road was merely a path when Mr. Morrow moved into the house. Present road was built by him.

Mary Wick's Will.

In the name of God Amen.

I. Mary Wick of the County of Morris in the State of New Jersey, widow and relict of Henry Wick of said County and State deceased, being in perfect health and of sound and disposing mind and memory, thanks be to the Almighty God therefor; and considering the uncertainty of this life, the mortality of my body: knowing it is appointed for all men onwe to die do make and ordain this, my last will and testament, in manner and form following, that is to say. First and principally I recommend my immort. al soul into the hands of Almighty God my creator, hoping throt the merits and mediation of my saviour and redeemer Jesus Christ for pardon and Eternal life, and my body be decently buried, at the discretion of my Executors, herein after mentioned and appointed, and as for such temporal estate as it has pleased God to bless me with in this life, I give devise and dispose of as follows: First I will order that all my just debts and funeral charges be duly paid and satisfied. And whereas my loving husband the late Henry Wick deceased, by his last will and testament, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of January in the year of our Lord One Thousand seven hundred and seventy one, did devise and bequeath unto me all his estate, real and personal; buildings, lands and tenements, and to those of our children, and grand-children, of us both, that I should give it to, or any part thereof, that I should give them, their heirs and assigns, forever. And whereas our son called Henry Wick Jr.: by unknown causes became lunatio, and thereby deprived of the common senses necessary to save and preserve the estate and property delivered to him by us (his parents) and did suffer wase thereof to be made, and became exceedingly troublesome and expensive whilst in his lifetime; therefore.

- Imprimis I give and bequeath unto the first born child of our said son Henry called Mary (now Mary Tuttle) our grand daughter all that tract or parcel of land being part of the lands to me bequeathed by the deceased aforesaid, situate in Mendham Township. in the County aferesaid, Beginning at a white oak stump standing in the line of Peter Kemble Esq: near the great road leading from Mendham to Chatham, where the Pennsylvania line of Hutts Intersected said Kemble line. Thence up said road along the line of said Hutts about North thirty three degrees and thirty minutes west, eleven chains and fifty links to Jockey Hollow Road: thence along Jockey Hollow Road as it new runs, nearly north; forty nine degrees east about seventy seven chains and fifty links, to a line of Joseph Guering's land: thence south thirty five degrees east, seven chains to a white cak stump, where the line of Hutts were, called the New York line of Hutts; thence south thirteen degrees thirty minutes west, thirty five chains, and fifty links to a hickory stump by a spring for a corner: thence south seventy degrees west, fifty two chains to the place of beginning, containing by estimation, one hundred and sixty acres, he the same more or less. To have and to hold the said tract of land with the appurtenances thereto belonging, unto the said Mary Tuttle her heirs and assigns forever.

Item I give and bequeath unto Chloe the second born child of the said Henry Wick (our son) called Chloe Wick, the just and full sum of twenty five pounds current proclamation money of New Jersey, to be duly paid to her the said Chloe by my executors herein after named. And whereas, Elizabeth the wife of our said son Henry Wick, has had children since the lunacy of our said son henry, which children were begotten after the said Elizabeth forsook the bed and board of our said son Henry, andno apparent reason appears to me, that they should be the children of our said son's body; yet nevertheless, the said children may, by some law, be entitled to a share in my bequests, and estate I do in lien or stead thereof give and bequeath unto each of them, the sum of five shillings proclamation money, to be duly paid by my executors hereinafter named, being a sufficient amount together with what our said son Henry Wick has had, to make up what I could or would choose to give him, or will, and bequeath to our grandchildren by our said son Henry Wick, now deceased. Item I give and inequeath unto my daughter Mary, called Mary. Blachly, all that tract or parcel of land, being part of the said tract, devised and bequeathed to me, by my loving husband aforesaid, situate in the fown and County aforesaid, Beginning at a large deed black oak tree standing in the eastermost line of Calet Eady's land; running thence north twenty nine degrees fifty minutes east, about thirty five chains and fifty links to a stake between Wathaniel Tingley, and Onesimus (?) Whitehead's lands: thence south thirty six degrees twenty minutes east, one hundred and twenty one chains, to Jockey Hollow Road, thence along said road southerly ten chains, thence north about forty seven degrees west, one hundred and sixty chains to the place of beginning containing by estimation two hundred and fifty acres be the same more or less.

Item I give devise and bequeath to my loving Grandson Absalom Blachly, the sum of fifty points, to be paid the said Absalom in good proclamation money of the State of New Jersey, by my executors hereinafter mentioned.

Item I also give devise and bequeath to my four grand daughters, Hannah Jude, Phebe and Temporance Blackly the children of my daughter mary Blachly the full seme of fifty pounds each, Proclamation money of the State of New Jersey, to be paid out of the principal of the certificates, or public securities now in my hands, and owing to me, either by the State of New Jersey, or the United States (when the same can be recovered out of the Hands of the Treasurer, or treasurers, whose right it is to pay debts due to the Public) by my executors hereinafter mentioned. To have and to hold, to my said daughter mary all and singular, the above bequests and to have said children, her and their heirs and assigns forever.

Item I give, devise and bequeath unto our daughter Phebe, called Phebe Leddel, all that tract or parcel of land, situate as aforesaid in the County of Morris and State aforesaid, being part of the lands bequeathed to me by my loving husband aforesaid. Beginning at a deed black cak tree standing in the line called Eady as aforesaid being a corner to lands hereby before bequeathed to my daughter Mary Blachly, running thence, south twenty nine degrees and fifty minutes west, nindty one chains to a Spanish oak, the beginning corner of the whole tract of land hereby meant to be devised, thence down the various courses of the Passaic River to the mouth of a brook falling into the west side of said River, about east from where Ichabad Dilley now lives, Thence north sixty nine degrees east twenty seven chains and seventy five links to a large spring in the Cook Meadow, thence on a straight line, northerly, to intersect the southernmost line of the tract bequeathed as aforesaid to Mary Blachly, at such place, as may render the part I now live on equal in quantity of acres, with the part or lot hereby intended to be bequeathed to my said daughter Phebe Leddel and now in possession of Doctor William Leddell her lawful husband. From said intersection along said southernmost line, to the aforesaid deed black cak tree, or place of Beginning.

Item I fix give and bequeath unto each of our grand daughters, Temperance and Elizabeth Leddel the full sum of fifty pounds to be collected and paid out of the Public Securities in the same manner and form as the bequests made to the children of our daughter mary Blachly, viz. her daughters. To have and to Hold unto our said daughter Phebe Leddel and to her two daughters Temperance and Elizabeth, all and singular the above devises and bequests with the appurtenances and privileges thereto belonging, to her and them, their heirs and assigns forever.

Item I give, devise and bequeath all and singular, the remaining part of my real estate, to our daughter Temperance Wick, houses out houses privileges, benefits and advantages, in any wise thereto belonging or appertaining, together with all and singular what movable estate I may be possessed of at the time of my decease, (viz.) horses, cows, oxen, sheep and hogs, Farming utensils, household furniture, wearing amoarel; with all that may remain of Public Securities, after paying the above bequests to our grand daughter as directed, together with all the bonds, bills notes, and book accounts, to have and to hold the same with every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, benefits and advantages therete belonging as in any wise appertaining, to her, her he irs and assigns forever.
